BIO

ONI

Less playlists. More dialogue. Every set is a conversation with the room.

ONI is an open-format selector whose sets move fluidly between house, afrobeat, tech house, funk and disco — reading the energy of every room and sculpting it into something unforgettable. Whether setting a slow-burning lounge atmosphere or igniting a dancefloor, ONI's mixes feel inevitable.

Based in Los Angeles with deep New York City roots, ONI has cultivated a sound that is at once globally influenced and deeply personal. His open-format approach means no two sets are alike — each performance is a direct response to the venue, the crowd, and the moment. From a sunlit Soho House terrace to a peak-hour festival tent, ONI's sets carry a consistent signature: intention.

ONI's clientele reflects the breadth of that range. Netflix cast events for Selling Sunset and Selling OC, Meta corporate activations, luxury hotel residencies at Sands Hotel & Spa in Palm Springs, and members-club dates across New York City — including Soho House, Soho Home, Sons of Essex, and MK Lounge.

"Matching the vibe to your aesthetic. The whole night, distilled into your moment."
